Functionality	Expected outcome	Actual outcome
Clicking on every navigation bar link on each page	The correct page should load from each link	Every link loaded the correct page when clicked
Clicking on every link on every footer page	The correct social media page should load when clicked	Each social media page loaded correctly
About page	All the content should load correctly, including the navigation bar, text, and footer	All the content loaded correctly, and all links work
Home page	The header and image should load, as well as the navigation bar and the footer	All the content loaded, and all links work
Works page	All content loads on works page, including nav and footer links	All the content loaded, and all links work
Clicking on an image in the works page	Each image clicks and opens into a new detailed page which shows the price of the artwork, the year made, the description, and all the comments that have been made about the artwork from different users. If a user is logged in, a box should be displayed at the bottom of the page, giving them the ability to write and post comments	All the images open into a new page, with extra information about the artworks displaying correctly. The comments load correctly and if a user is logged in, the box to write comments in also displays correctly
Add button on the detailed image view page	This should add the artwork to the cart	The artwork now appears in the basket
Contact page	The form should load correctly on the contact page	The form loads
Send button on Contact page	When the button is clicked, a banner should come up at the top of the page saying that the message was successfully sent.	The banner shows up correctly at the top of the page
Login page	The page should load with the form correctly displayed	The form is displayed correctly

Don't have an account? Register button	The links should take the user to the register page so that that can create a new account	The link works and directs the user to the register page
Register page	The register form should load correctly	The register form is displayed correctly
Register button on the register page	When clicked, this should create a new account which the user can then login with on the login page	The button directs the user to the login page where they can then use their login details to log into the site
Already have an account? Login button	When clicked, this should load the login page	The button directs the user to the login page where they can then use their login details to log into the site
Cart page	The cart page should load up correctly with all the images of works added to cart being displayed, as well as the title, modify/delete buttons ,and the total price of all items displayed at the bottom.	The cart page loads correctly with all functions and links working
Adjust quantity button on the detailed image view page	This should change the quantity number to the modified amount	The new quantity number shows
Checkout button on cart page	This should lead to the checkout page, where users can purchase the items in their cart	The checkout page loads with the correct form displayed
Responsivity for all pages on different devices, ie. mobile, tablet, desktop	The website should be responsive on every single device and all information should load correctly	Each page loads as it should on each device with no errors or misalignment
Form validation on every page	Every form that the user needs to fill out must be validated before submission	Each form is correctly validated before submission.